Schedule C, Part II-B, Line 1 - Araminta supported the legislative efforts of the Maryland Human Trafficking Task Force by supporting legislative bills that strength the anti-trafficking legislation in MD. The Legislative committee of the Task Force, coordinated by the MD US Attorney's Office, collectively agreed on legislation to support. Representatives from Araminta sit on the Legislative Committee. Araminta informed our community supporters to call and write their representatives, asking them to support the bills. No professional lobbyists were used, no funds were utilized to solicit support for the bills, and no support of delegates or senators was made or promised during the activites. The lobbying efforts of Araminta remain as grassroots community organizing, soliciting the publics support for bills that enhance the services of victims of human trafficking.

Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

The 2012 Form 990-EZ was the first year that the Organization was required to file a return. The Organization filed Form 990-N Postcard for 2011. A church accountant was volunteering with the bookkeeping and was unaware of the different filing regulations for a church vs non-church 501(c)(3). The Organization hired an outside accounting firm to file all required filings with the IRS in order to be in compliance.
